car, cars  [ˈkɑː]
(Nomen)

Definition: a vehicle with four wheels that you can drive

Übersetzung: Auto

Beispiel: I'll take the car to go to the doctor.

in the car
(Chunk)

Übersetzung: im Auto
in das Auto

Beispiel: She is in the car.

get out of the car
(Chunk)

Übersetzung: aus dem Auto aussteigen

Beispiel: Hurry, get out of the car!

driver, drivers  [ˈdraɪvə]
(Nomen)

Definition: a person who operates a vehicle, i.e. who drives a car

Übersetzung: Fahrer

Beispiel: The company sent a driver to pick them up.

petrol  [ˈpɛtrəl]
(Unzählbares Nomen)

Qlingoneo
Definition: (British) abbreviation of petroleum, a fluid consisting of a mixture of refined petroleum hydrocarbons, primarily consisting of octane, and commonly used as a motor fuel

Übersetzung: Benzin

Beispiel: The car ran out of petrol.

---

breakdown, breakdowns ['bɹeɪkdaʊn]

Definition: a failure, particularly mechanical

Übersetzung: Panne

Beispiel: We saw a breakdown by the side of the road.

---

tyre, tyres [taɪə]

Definition: the ring-shaped protective covering around a wheel which is usually made of rubber or plastic composite and is either pneumatic or solid

Übersetzung: Reifen

Beispiel: They'll need four new tyres in the winter.

---

wheel, wheels [wiːl]

Definition: a circular device capable of rotating on its axis, facilitating movement or transportation or performing labour in machines

Übersetzung: Rad
Example: They saw a car with three wheels the other day.

brake, brakes
[bɹeɪk]
(Nomen)
Definition: a device used to slow or stop a vehicle, by friction; often installed on the wheels (then often used in the plural)
Übersetzung: Bremse
Example: When she tried to slow down her car, the brakes didn't work.

car park, car parks
[ˈkɑːpərk]
(Nomen)
Definition: an outdoor area or a multi-story building where cars may be parked
Übersetzung: Parkplatz
Example: Is there a car park right next to the mall?

garage, garages
[ˈɡæɹɪdʒ]
(Nomen)
Definition: a building (or section of a building) used to store a car, tools and other miscellaneous items
Übersetzung: Garage
Example: The family plans to build a garage next to their new house.

windscreen, windscreens
[ˈwɪndskriːn]
(Nomen)
Definition: a transparent screen made of glass, located at the front of a vehicle in front of its occupants to protect them from the wind and the weather
Übersetzung: Windschutzscheibe

Beispiel: A vandal has just come and smashed our windscreen!

tank, tanks [tæŋk]
(Nomen)
Definition: a container for the car’s petrol

Übersetzung: Tank

Beispiel: Is the tank on the left or on the right side?

speedometer, speedometers [ˈspiːdəmətər]
(Nomen)
Definition: a device that measures and indicates the current speed of a vehicle

Übersetzung: Geschwindigkeitsanzeiger

Beispiel: Look at the speedometer to see the current speed of the car.

bonnet, bonnets [bɒnɪt]
(Nomen)
Definition: the hinged cover over the engine of a car

Übersetzung: Motorhaube

Beispiel: The bonnet won’t open!

Synonym(e): hood

exhaust, exhausts [ɪgˈzost]
(Nomen)
Definition: a system consisting of the parts of an engine through which burned gases or steam are discharged

Übersetzung: Auspuff

Beispiel: The exhaust fell off!

headlight, headlights [ˈhedlaɪt]

(Nomen)

Definition: a bright light, with a lens and reflector, on the front of a motor vehicle, designed to illuminate the road when driving at night

Übersetzung: Frontscheinwerfer

Beispiel: One of the headlights is broken.

number plate, number plates

(Nomen)

Definition: either of a pair of rectangular metal plates, containing a mixture of letters and numbers fixed to the front and rear of a motor car showing that its identity has been registered

Übersetzung: Nummernschild

Beispiel: The number plate in the front is very dirty.

accident, accidents [ˈæk.sə.dənt]

(Nomen)

Definition: an unrehearsed, sudden, and unexpected event that often results in injury or damage to property

Übersetzung: Unfall

Beispiel: The man died in a car accident.
wreck, wrecks  [ˈrek]

(Nomen)

Definition: something that has been ruined

Übersetzung: Wrack

Beispiel: The car was a wreck after the accident.

engine, engines  [ˈɛn.dʒɪn]

(Nomen)

Definition: a device to convert energy into useful mechanical motion

Übersetzung: Motor

Beispiel: Is there a problem with the car's engine?