test, tests  [tɛst]
(Nomen)

Definition: an examination, given often during the academic term

Übersetzung: Test

Beispiel: How did you do in the test?

Synonym(e): quiz, examination

test  [tɛst]
(Verb)

Definition: to administer or assign an examination that is given often during the academic term

Übersetzung: testen

Beispiel: Our teacher tested us on the new vocabulary.

examination, examinations
(Nomen)

Definition: a formal test involving answering written or oral questions with no or limited access to text books or the like

Übersetzung: Prüfung

Beispiel: Our final examinations are in March.

Synonym(e): exam

oral exam, oral exams
(Nomen)

Definition: an examination in which you only speak to the examiners without having to write anything written exam, written exams
(Nomen)

Definition: an examination in which you need to answer questions on a piece of paper or write a text

Übersetzung: schriftliche Prüfung
Beispiel: The written exams are easier than the oral exams.

examine
(Verb)

Definition: to determine the aptitude, skills or qualifications of someone by subjecting them to an examination

Übersetzung: prüfen untersuchen
Beispiel: The professor examines his students once a month.

take an exam
(Chunk)

Übersetzung: eine Prüfung ablegen eine Prüfung machen Beispiel: She'll take the exams at the end of the year.

pass [pɑːs] (Verb)

Definition: to go through any inspection or test successfully

Übersetzung: bestehen Beispiel: He passed his examination.
Antonym(e): fail

pass with honours
(Chunk)

Übersetzung: mit Auszeichnung bestehen

Beispiel: She passed her final exams with honours.

fail  [fæl]
(Verb)

Definition: not to achieve a particular stated goal; to receive one or more non-passing grades in academic pursuits

Übersetzung: durchfallen versagen scheitern

Beispiel: I failed English last year.

Antonym(e): pass

level, levels  [ˈlɛv.i.l]
(Nomen)

Definition: the range of difficulty

Übersetzung: Niveau

Beispiel: The level of the science class is just too high.

mark, marks  [mɑːk]
(Nomen)

Definition: the result you get for an exam, often being a number or a letter

Übersetzung: Note

Beispiel: What's your mark in the English test?
Synonym(e): grade (AE)

---

prepare \[pɹɪˈpeɪ\]
 (Verb)

Definition: to make oneself or something ready for a specific future purpose

Übersetzung: vorbereiten

Beispiel: We prepared for a bumpy ride.

---

cheat
\[tʃiːt\]
 (Verb)

Definition: to violate rules in order to gain advantage from a situation

Übersetzung: betrügen mogeln

Beispiel: He failed the test because he had cheated.

---

copy
\[ˈkɒpɪ\]
 (Verb)

Definition: to produce an object identical to a given object; to imitate, especially what someone else has written

Übersetzung: abschreiben

Beispiel: Mom, he's copying my homework!

---

effort, efforts
\[ˈɛfət\]
 (Nomen)

Definition: the amount of work involved in performing an activity

Übersetzung: Anstrengung
Mühe

Beispiel: She puts so much effort into studying. result, results  [ɹɪˈzʌlt]
(Nomen)
Definition: the conclusion or end to which any course or condition of things leads; the fruit, beneficial or tangible effect(s) achieved by effort
Übersetzung: Ergebnis
Resultat
Folge
Beispiel: What were your test results?

good, better, best  [gʊd]
(Adjektiv)
Definition: useful for a particular purpose; pleasant and enjoyable Übersetzung: gut
Beispiel: We had a good time.
Antonym(e): bad, poor

do well  (Chunk) Übersetzung: Erfolg haben Beispiel: She did well in her exams!

excellent  [ˈeksələnt]
(Adjektiv)
Definition: of the highest quality; exceptionally good of its kind Übersetzung: ausgezeichnet Beispiel: He received excellent results.

essay, essays  ['ɛsə]
(Nomen)
Definition:

a written composition of moderate length exploring a particular issue or subject

Übersetzung:

Aufsatz

Beispiel:

I need to write an essay about our health care system.

Synonym(e):

paper (AE)

---

assignment, assignments

(Nomen)

Definition:

a task given to students, homework or coursework

Übersetzung:

Aufgabe

Hausarbeit

Beispiel:

The teacher gave us the assignment to research on American presidents.

---

credit, credits

(Nomen)

Definition:

recognition for having taken a course or a class

Übersetzung:

Schein

Beispiel:

I just need 3 more credits to graduate.