clothes  [kləʊðz]
(Nomen Mehrzahl)

Definition: items of clothing to put cover your body with; apparel like shirts, pants, jackets etc.

Übersetzung: Kleidung

Beispiel: She went shopping and bought some new clothes.

dress  [dres]
(Verb)

Definition: to put on clothes

Übersetzung: kleiden

Beispiel: He was dressed in the latest fashions.

Synonym(e): clothe, get dressed

Antonym(e): strip, undress, get undressed

well-groomed
(Adjektiv)

Definition: neat and well-dressed

Übersetzung: gepflegt

Beispiel: For his interview he needed to look well-groomed.

Antonym(e): badly-groomed

dirty  ['dɜːti]
(Adjektiv)
Definition: covered with or containing unpleasant substances such as dirt or grime

Übersetzung: schmutzig

Beispiel: Despite a walk in the rain, my shoes weren't too dirty.

Synonym(e): filthy, soiled, sordid, unclean, unwashed

Antonym(e): clean

shabby  [ˈʃæb.i]

(Adjektiv)

Definition: clothed with ragged, much worn, or soiled garments

Übersetzung: schäbig

Beispiel: The fellow arrived looking rather shabby after journeying so far.

rumpled

(Adjektiv)

Definition: uneven, with many furrows and prominent points, like some clothes when you don't iron them

Übersetzung: zerknittert

Beispiel: The shirt is rather rumpled because I don't have a flat iron.

modern  [ˈmɒd(a)n]

(Adjektiv)

Definition: pertaining to the current time and style

Übersetzung: modern

Beispiel: The young girl always wears modern clothing.

Synonym(e): contemporary Antonym(e): old