disability, disabilities

(Nomen)

Definition:

an absence of competent physical, intellectual, or moral power, means, fitness, and the like

Übersetzung:

Behinderung

Beispiel:

He has a mental disability.

Synonym(e):

handicap

---

disabled

(Adjektiv)

Definition:

having an absence of competent physical, intellectual, or moral power, means, fitness, and the like

Übersetzung:

behindert

Beispiel:

Julia works with disabled children.

---

disabled person, disabled persons

(Nomen)

Definition:

a person with a disability

Übersetzung:

Behindeter

Beispiel:

She has two disabled persons among her friends.

---

physically handicapped

(Adjektiv)

Definition:

having an absence of competent physical power

Übersetzung:

körperlich behindert

Beispiel:

The child is physically handicapped.
mentally handicapped

(adjektiv)

Definition: having an absence of competent intellectual or moral power

Übersetzung: geistig behindert

Beispiel: The girl learns slowly because she is mentally handicapped.

sane [seɪn]

(adjektiv)

Definition: being in a healthy condition; possessing a rational mind; having the mental faculties in such condition as to be able to anticipate and judge the effect of one's actions in an ordinary manner

Übersetzung: geistig gesund normal

Beispiel: The old man still seems to be sane.

Antonym(e): insane, crazy

insane [ɪnˈseɪn]

(adjektiv)

Definition: a disorder of mind; not having the mental faculties in such condition as to be able to anticipate and judge the effect of one's actions in an ordinary manner

Übersetzung: geisteskrank
verrückt

Beispiel: He was committed to an institution because he was insane.

Antonym(e): sane

impaired hearing

(unzählbares Nomen)

Definition: not being able to properly hear sounds

Übersetzung: Schwerhörigkeit
For 30 years now he has had to cope with impaired hearing.

deaf  [ˈdɛf]
(Adjektiv)

Definition: not being able to hear

Übersetzung: taub

Beispiel: She used sign language to communicate because she was deaf.

paralysed
(Adjektiv)

Definition: not being able to move

Übersetzung: gelähmt

Beispiel: He needs a wheelchair because he is paralysed.