university, universities  [juːnɪˈvaɪəsəti]
(Nomen)

Definition: an institution of higher education (typically accepting students from the age of about 17 or 18, depending on the country, but in some cases able to take younger students in exceptional cases) where subjects are studied and researched in depth and degrees are offered

Übersetzung: Universität

Beispiel: What are you going to study at university?

Synonym(e): college (AE)

studies  [ˈstʌdɪz]
(Nomen Mehrzahl)

Definition: an academic field of study concerning a given subject

Übersetzung: Studium

Beispiel: My boyfriend is taking media studies.

study  [ˈstʌdi]
(Verb)

Definition: to take a course or courses on a subject; to revise materials already learned in order to make sure one does not forget them, usually in preparation for an examination

Übersetzung: studieren
lernen

Beispiel: Students are expected to start studying for final exams in March.

education  [ɪdʒuˈkeɪʃn]
(Unzählbares Nomen)

Definition: the process or art of imparting knowledge, skill and judgment; fact, skills and ideas that have been learned, either formally or informally

Übersetzung: Ausbildung

Beispiel: A good teacher is essential for a good education.

higher education

(Unzählbares Nomen)

Definition: university education or higher; continued education after the point at which attendance of an educational institution is no longer compulsory

Übersetzung: Hochschulbildung

Beispiel: A university is an institution of higher education.

Synonym(e): tertiary-level education

further education

(Unzählbares Nomen)

Definition: higher education, education at university level or higher, often after one has already finished an apprenticeship

Übersetzung: Weiterbildung

Beispiel: In some companies a further education is necessary to keep one's job.

academic  [ˌækaˈdɛmɪk]

(Adjektiv)

Definition: belonging to an academy or other higher institution of learning; being scholarly; literary or classical, in distinction from scientific

Übersetzung: akademisch

Beispiel: Some people prefer academic studies to a practical education.
apply for

(Mehrgliedriges Verb)

Definition: to submit oneself as a candidate for

Übersetzung: sich bewerben für

Beispiel: I recently applied for a job as a bartender at the tavern.

start college

(Chunk)

Übersetzung: mit dem Studium beginnen

Beispiel: I started college two years ago.

technical college, technical colleges

(Nomen)

Definition: a university which offers mainly technical studies

Übersetzung: technische Fachhochschule

Beispiel: Do you want to study mechanics at a technical college?

Synonym(e): College of Technology

College of Art, Colleges of Art

(Nomen)

Definition: a university which offers mainly studies of art

Übersetzung: Kunsthochschule

Beispiel: I'll soon study at the College of Art.

College of Music, Colleges of Music

(Nomen)

Definition: a university which offers mainly studies of music
student, students  [stjuːdənt]
(Nomen)
Definition: a person who studies a particular academic subject; a person enrolled at a university
Übersetzung: Student
Beispiel: The students were out raising funds for rag week.
Synonym(e): scholar

student ID, student IDs
(Nomen)
Definition: a card which identifies a college student
Übersetzung: Studierendenausweis
Beispiel: When you enrol at a university, you get a student ID.

undergraduate, undergraduates
(Nomen)
Definition: a student which has not yet graduated
Übersetzung: Student (vor dem ersten akademischen Grad) Beispiel: He’s still an undergraduate.

graduate, graduates  [ˈɡrædʒuət]
(Nomen)
Definition: a person who is recognised by a university as having completed the requirements of a degree studied at the institution
Übersetzung: Hochschulabsolvent
Beispiel: The graduates sometimes give the undergraduates some advice.